Joan Buchinski Named Fraternalist of the Year

Terri Rumenski member of the selection Committee, Mrs Joan Buchinski receiving the award, Bernard Kolodziej – President, and member Anastasia Bachurek.

Mrs. Joan Buchinski of Jermyn, PA received the 2011 Polish Union Fraternalist of the Year Award during festivities at the Polish Union Community Room. The selection Committee included Alice Czyzyk, Charlotte Androckitis, and Terri Rumenski. Their decision was made on the basis of Mrs. Buchinski's extensive community service work in her home town and greater Scranton area. Her childhood days were filled with compassionate care for injured animals and she is still involved in animal advocacy. Now retired from many years as a nursing assistant, Mrs. Buchinski devotes her time to helping people in any way she can. Much of her time is spent selling her baked goods and donating the proceeds to agencies and needy individuals. Other community service initiatives include organizing walkathons, food drives, bake sales and raffles, all geared toward helping others. We were especially pleased to learn that Mrs. Buchinski joined our organization as the result of her participation in our Folk Art Programs several years ago. Congratulations on behalf of our entire organization.

Unfiled Claims

Each year our Home Office reports a number of members deaths, yet, beneficiaries have not filed a death claim with us. Until the claim is made and processed we cannot issue the death benefit due. If you know of anyone who might not have filed a death claim that they are beneficiary to, encourage them to contact us. We will help you make arrangements to file a legal death claim. Call us during business hours.

If someone has lost the original policy as the beneficiary, or the policy was misplaced while the deceased was still alive, you may request a duplicate policy providing you have a legal Death Certificate for the deceased member.

Promise Yourself

Promise yourself to be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind

To speak of health, happiness, and prosperity to every person that you meet.

To make all your friends aware of the special qualities within them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and let your optimism work to make your dreams come true.

To think, work for, and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget past mistakes and press on towards a greater future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times as a smile radiates warmth and love.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time left to criticize others.

To be too wise for worry, too tolerant for anger, and too courageous for fear.

To be happy

Wishing You Good Health and Happiness for 2012

The year 2012 presents us with many challenges. For some families their efforts center on surviving the pressures of low income and an uncertain labor market. Others concern themselves with helping their children adjust to the hurdles of achieving the proverbial American Dream of financial independence. This is often difficult due to worldwide economic issues. Those who have seen better times must demonstrate a positive attitude by setting realistic examples and offering guidance for future generations. Positive reinforcement will help this generation attain their goals.

Our organization also has challenges for this New Year. We are obligated to assure our members that quality products remain available to them and their families while protecting the integrity of the investments they have made in their organization. The added feature of fraternal benefits, of equal importance, is generally understood by our veteran members but we often encounter difficulty explaining the value of such benefits to prospective members. We are reminded by State and National Organizations to fully define the scope of our benefits. Their national surveys demonstrate that Fraternals are not clearly understood by the general public and we must more aggressively market our benefits. The revised trade name, upgraded website, and other marketing efforts mentioned in our last issue are continuing with the full support and energized interest of our Board and Committees.

President's Desk

“Boże Bogosław Nasz Dom”

Chaplain's Corner

REV. PATRICK ALBERT

“God Bless Our Home” – the blessing of the home is a Polish tradition that brings great memories to mind for me. I remember visiting homes during my first few years as a priest, to give blessings and receive wonderful homemade dishes in return. The smells that greeted me as the door opened reminded me of all the wonderful traditions and food found in the Polish culture.

Traditionally, the priest visited from house to house to give the blessing for the Epiphany celebration, and to sing carols. Bringing blessed chalk and holy water, an inscription was marked on the doorway frame or doorpost, as well as saying or singing a blessing. Invoking protection against illness and misfortune for all who dwell in the house, the current year and the first initials of the 3 Kings, with a cross between each letter, are written in chalk in the following format: 20 + K + M + B +12. While the initials K, M and B are the traditionally applied names of the 3 Kings-Kaspar, Melchior and Balthazar; it is also believed that the letters may stand for the Latin inscription of Christus mansionem benedicat, for “Christ bless this house”.

Alternately, some families took a basket or box containing chalk, a gold ring, incense and a piece of amber (in memory and in honor of the gifts of the Magi) to the celebration of the Feast of the Epiphany to be blessed. Once home, the family then inscribes the blessing on their house, where it remains all year until it is inadvertently dusted off or replaced by the markings for the next new year.

So it is in this spirit that I give to you the following blessing: May Jesus, along with the spirits of the 3 Wise Kings, protect you and all who enter your house in this New Year. I wish you and your families a very Happy New Year.

33rd Debutante Ball “A Special Rose”

This year’s 33rd annual Debutante Ball was titled “A Special Rose” in honor of our late President, Rose Wartko. The Ball was held at Fiorelli’s, Peckville. Guests enjoyed a delicious dinner, brief presentations, and music with dancing pleasure by the George Tarasek Orchestra. Judy Granato, Rose’s daughter, gave a heartfelt speech in remembrance of her mother. She spoke of how important the Debutante Ball event was to her mother, and how she loved to tell her of the night’s details and numerous girls presented into society over the past years. The Polish Union had sixteen previous Debutantes attend the event to not only honor Rose, but also represent the 32 years of such a magical social event that Rose began. Charlotte Androckitis, Polish Union’s CEO/ National Secretary, presented the following previous Debutantes that evening: 1982, Martha Payne, 1985, Sheri Pudlosky-Brierley, 1988, Carol Kolodziej, 1992, Alicia Bednarski Harrington, 1993, Janelle Giebus, 1995, Kimberly Nareski Kowalski, 1997, Emily Huber Stefanac, 1998 Debutante, Jennifer Zanghi, 2000, Carol Zielinski, 2002 , Katryna Reilly, 2004, Gabrielle Stine, 2004, Amy Zielinski, 2005, Amanda Marchegaini, 2009, Sara Beth Kolodziej, 2010, Nicole Poplawski, and 2010 , Maria Zanghi.

The evening was a nice way to give tribute to Rose Wartko for starting such a spectacular social event within the Polish Union. It also gave time to reflect upon those who started the event with her, those who continue to work on hosting the event currently, and those Debutantes who participated throughout the years. The Debutante Ball Committee hopes to continue the tradition that Rose began, as we look forward to next year’s event. It gives the Polish Union great pride and pleasure to be able to host such a magical event honoring the Debutantes each year, and properly presenting them into our society. We hope to have an even bigger turn out for next year’s event, with many Debutantes to present.

Special thank you out to this year’s Page Girl, Erica Prushinski of Dickson City, and Page Boy, Jonathan Allen of Plains. They were a tremendous help that evening and fulfilled their Page Girl / Boy duties to the fullest. Job well done!

Halloween Party

The Youth Committee hosted this year’s Children’s Halloween Party on Sunday, October 23rd. The children’s costumes were spectacular, as was the Halloween tricks provided by Mr. Fun the Magician. The children enjoyed lunch, magic tricks, a parade of costumes, and some fantastic holiday goody bags compliments of the Polish Union. Nicole Poplawski and Ashlynd Huber even provided some holiday nail polish for our girls and cool temporary tattoos for our boys this year as a special treat. The committee would also like to thank our President, Bernie Kolodziej, for donating a pumpkin for each child to take home in addition to their goody bag.

Paderewski Anniversary Concert At WVIA Studio

Polish Union officers and members meet with pianist Drew Peterson

Polish Union USA/ Ameripol and the Wilkes University Polish Room Committee in collaboration with WVIA FM presented a "Simply Grand Concert" at their studio for over 75 invited guests. This has since been broadcast on NPR radio and will be repeated later. This concert commemorating the 151st birthday of Ignacy Jan Paderewski was performed by Mr. Drew Petersen, a renowned 17 year old who has received numerous awards in the US and Europe. Mr. Petersen began piano lessons at the age of 5 and is a highly respected cultural leader in music. He is continuing studies at the Julliard School and is a Bachelor of Arts Candidate at Harvard University Extension School.

Our members along with all guests in attendance were very much impressed with Mr. Petersen's talent. Memories past were recalled by some of the audience because our archives contain reference to Ignacy Paderewski's visits to Northeastern PA many years ago. Polish Union USA sponsored a Testimonial and Musicales honoring Maestro Paderewski's 75th birthday with a stellar performance by Mr. Paderewski himself. Another visit worthy of mention was in 1940 when our Polish Union president and Dr. E. J. Kielar met him in New York City as he began his fund raising campaign for aid to Poland at the beginning of the war in Europe.

Poles In Luzerne County

Polish Union members Mary Ellen Kolodziej and Chris Pagoda at the Luzerne County Historical Society exhibit. The Polish Chef

Paczki Galore!

The “pączek“ (plural pączki) is the favorite cake of the pre-Lenten carnival season. In Poland it reigns supreme on Thizsty Czwartek (Fat Tuesday)—the last Thursday before Lent, while across Polonia this light and luscious filled Polish doughnut is mainly associated with Shrove Tuesday. We present two different p'czki recipes gleaned from various sources over the years.

Gourmet Warsaw Pączki

Beat 12 egg yolks with 1 t. salt at high speed until mixture is thick and piles softly (about 7 mins.) Separately add 2 pkg. active dry yeast to a bowl containing 1/4 c. warm water to soften. 1/3 c. room-temp. butter or margarine, gradually adding 1/2 c. sugar, until fluffy. Stir 1 c. flour into yeast mixture. Add 3 T rum and 1/2 c. pre-scalded whipping cream, then beat in another c. of flour and stir in another 1/2 c. of whipping cream. Beat in another c. of flour and the yolk mixture, beating about 2 min. Gradually beat in 1-1/2 c. flour and continue beating until air blisters appear in dough. Coven dough with plastic wrap and place in a warm place to rise. When doubled in bulk, punch down, cover nd when it rises again, punch it down. Roll dough out on floured board 3/4'. thick put into 3" rounds. Place a spoonful of very thick jam or preserves at center of half the rounds. Brush edges of rounds with water and top with remaining rounds. Pinch edges together to seal. Cover pączki and keep in warm place until doubled in bulk (about 20 min.). Fry pączki in hot (365 degree F) fat to a nice golden brown on both sides. Transfer to absorbent paper and sprinkle with cinnamon sugar if desired.

Pączki

Mash 1-3/4 oz. fresh yeast with 2 T sugar and and dissolve in 5 T. milk. Set aside to rise. Cream 4 egg yolks and 2 whole eggs with 6 T sugar and grated rind of half a small lemon add yeast mixture, 7 c. flour, 1-1/2 c. milk, 1 t. salt and knead ingredients to combine. Add 2 T. rum and knead again, Gradually add 9 T. melted butter and continue kneading until fully blended, then set aside in warm place to rise. When dough doubles in bulk, divide into 4 parts. Roll out each part on floured board to a thickness of 1/3". In sieve, drain 1 -1/2 cherry preserves. (Use the drippings to flavor tea, vodka, cake, pudding or ice-cream). Cut dough into rounds with glass or biscuit-cuter and place some drained cherry preserves at center, cover with another round and pinch rounds together with fingers. Place pączki on flour-sprinkled surface, cover with cloth and set aside in warm place to rise. After they rise, turn them over. Heat lard or oil. It is hot enough if a piece of dough floats to the top immediately. Brush excess flour off pączki and fry in hot fat deep enough so they can float freely. when one side is browned, turn them over. Transfer pączki to absorbent paper and dust with confectioner's sugar.

Koffee Klatch

with D.K.

• Dzien dobry! Welcome to my kitchen! After the lull in January, we need something to pick us up again. So today our thoughts are around Valentine's Day, which is just around the corner, February 14th to be more speicflc. When my guests got a glimpse of our buffet table their eyes lit up!. A group of exotic coffees are ready to be poured and the table of goodies consists of chocolate cookies, chocolate covered strawberries, mom's old-fashioned chocolate cake and an array of chocolate covered nuts.

Why all the chocolates some of my guests inquired? “And it's the good stuff.” Gloria stated, “wow, lok at this Dutch chocolate,” while Andrea raved at the Belgian chocolates.

I decided to give my guests some incredible information I recently learned about chocolate. Do you know that chocolate is good for you? According to researcher Andrew L. Waterhouse, Ph.D., real chocolate is loaded with phenols, antioxidants similar to the ones found in red wine. Also, cocoa butter, the one used in Belgian and Swiss chocolate doesn't raise cholesterol, unlike the cheaper fats used on discount chocolates.

According to Dr. Howard Shapiro's clinically proven food awareness and Picture Perfect Weight Loss program, one cup of chocolate chip ice cream equals 10 fudgsicles. The wrong ways to chocolate binge are: 1-pack sugar-free chocolate caramels 360 calories; 1-pack fructose-sweetened chocolate covered raisins is 540 calories and 3 reduced-fat chocolate wafers is 240 calones. The right way to chocolate binge is: 12 oz. chocolate frozen yogurt is 240 calories chocolate sbake (lo-cal mix) is 70 calories a mug of-hot cocoa (low-cal) is 20 calories. 3 Hershey's chocolate kisses are 73 calories

So, now that Valentine's Day is coming up, make sure the chocolate is all around and for the guys out there, only buy the best chocolate for your sweethean.

• Could Mashed Potatoes be a Lifesaver? According to researchers, mashed potatoes protect against cancer, and can lower your blood pressure and even melt away pounds and slash your risk of cancer and heart disease. Of course, you must leave out the butter, etc., only use fat free sour cream, parsley or plain, with raw or steamed veggies. They claim that if the 45 million women who fear colon cancer, just pile the potatoes on your plate and you may not be one of them. This has been recorded by Mary Ellen Camire, Ph.D.

• For Valentine's Day—Put a Little Snice Secret In Your Marriage: How do you do it?

Just put a little seeret that just the two of you share. Recent studies confirmed tliat couples who share special secrets have happier and loving marriages. Use these little secrets on special occasions like anniversaries, etc., because this is a:day that is special to only the two of you. Come up with special abbreviations: such as how is your tbigs? Give each other pet names (use them only when you are alone).Create a secret word or signal (I'm sure you can get the message). So, go ahead and squeeze his pinkie, or tap his back two times or: scratch your right ear and he will know what your romantic signal is. Doesn't this s sound like fun?

Dear P.K

I am an employee in a large corporation. My job is in the supervisory range. I have a friend who is also in a similar position. On occasion I must work I with another employee named John. Sue thinks John is a dream and I have noticed how jealous she seems to get when John and I must work together. She recently began to spread rumors that John and I are seeing each other outside of work. This is a lie. I am a happily married woman and resent these rumors. What can I do?

• Dear Vicki:
The way we allow people to treat us is how they learn to treat us. If you find a coment hurtful, speak up! A simple “I don't find that funny” will make them understand that what they've sid was inappropriate and you'll feel betterknowing you stood up for yourself. Or, emphatically state to whoever is making the statement: “This is a lie and this ruor must stop, now!”

• Note: A woman went to confession to confess that she told a terrible lie about someone and asked for forgiveness. The priest told her for her penance she must buy a chicken and stand in the roadside and pluck all the feathers from the chicken and bring the chicken back to the priest. She did that and he said, “Very good, now I want you to go back and pick up all the feathers.” The woman replied, “But father, I can't pick up the feathers, the are scattered everywhere.” The pirst replied, “That is right, just like your rumours are. No go and learn your lesson.”

This Is Our New Trade Name

Polish Union USA/Ameripol, a fraternal benefit society with national headquarters in Wilkes-Barre, PA has been in business for over 120 years. We have 9000 members and many of them reside in eastern PA.
