Happy New Year 2009

May I begin this special message to our National Officers, District Presidents, Local Group Officers, and all of the Members of the Polish Women's Alliance and their families with prayerfully best wishes for A VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

That wish launches a whole stream of thoughts and plans as to how we all can literally make the year 2009 a Very Happy New Year—with special emphasis on the word "HAPPY." How can we all be HAPPY in the year 2009? How can we all make each other HAPPY in this New Year?

Here are my personal suggestions:

- 1. Sign up at least five new members for the Polish Women's Alliance. Membership is our lifeblood. Without new members we can never fully replace the members that we naturally lose each year. New members are the future of the PWA. If we can do this, it will make all of us HAPPY!
- 2.Let's concentrate in 2009 on local activities: vibrant and productive meetings, enjoyable celebrations of anniversaries and milestones in the history of the PWA, recognizing individuals who do outstanding work for the PWA, marking religious and civil holidays, arranging special seasonal events, and many other possibilities that the officers and members may suggest. It will make all of us HAPPY!
- 3. Plan special ways by which you can support our educational programs and the PWA Scholarship Fund. Education is the key to success. Education is an investment in the future. Scholarships are always a very attractive drawing point with young members. This will make all of us HAPPY!
- 4. At the district level, emphasize the importance of the role of fraternal organizations to protect families through fraternal insurance. For many these are very difficult economic times. The Polish Women's Alliance insurance programs can go a long way to help many of our members. This will make all of us very HAPPY!
- 5. Use the National Office to help promote your ideas and activities. Your National Officers are ready, willing, and anxious to assist you. This will make all of us HAPPY!
- 6. Introduce activities that preserve and emphasize our Polish heritage and traditions. Our Polish culture is so very rich and offers a great variety of possibilities. This will make all of us HAPPY!
- 7. Encourage our children and especially grandchildren to join our local dance groups and Polish classes. This is an activity that appeals very much to our folks—but they need our encouragement and support. This will make all of us HAPPY!

Finally, in the name of your National Officers and Office Staff, may I extend to you and your loved ones our prayerful best wishes for a healthy, prosperous, peaceful, and HAPPY New Year.

PWA President and Secretary-Treasurer Take Part in 90th Anniversary Observances of Polish Independence in Warsaw

WARSAW, Poland —Poland celebrated the 90th anniversary of its emergence from 123 years of foreign domination on November 11, 2008. All across Europe commemorations were held, marking the end of World War I on this day 90 years ago. For Poland, however, the day symbolized more than the end of a bloody war. It symbolized the end of 123 years of partition by Russia, Prussia, and Austria. Poland's independence, as we know, was short-lived. The Nazis and Soviets dominated the nation for many more years—from 1939 to 1989—but now at long last the nation is free!

"Today is a day of joy," President Lech Kaczynski declared in military ceremony which was held on the large square in front of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Warsaw. He spoke after a military band played the national anthem and cannons boomed at a gathering that included German Chancellor Angela Merkel and the presidents of Afghanistan, Ukraine, and Georgia, as well as thousands of Poles waving Polish flags, and representatives of Polonia from around the world.

PWA President Virigina Sikora and Secretary-Treasurer Antoinette Trela Vander Noot represented PWA at the Mass which opened the day's activities; at the military ceremony and wreath-laying at the Tomb of the Unkown Soldier; as well as at the concert held in Teatr Wielki in the evening and at the gala reception that followed.

The next day, President Sikora and Secretary-Treasurer Trela Vander Noot visited Wspolnota Polska, where representatives of Polonia from around the world met with the new Wspolnota President Maciej Plazynski and where President Sikora addressed the assembled guests.

They also visited the Institute for Blind Children in Laski outside of Warsaw, which PWA members have generously supported over the years. It was the 104th birthday of Director Zofia Murawska who is herself blind but still a vigorous and strong leader, clearly dedicated to the children of Laski.

Fraternal News

From the Desk of the Secretary– Treasurer

Dear Members:

As we embark on this New Year 2009, the expression "out with the old and in with the new" truly is a significant statement for many of us.

The year 2008, with all of the financial upheaval that finally surfaced—especially in the second half—is a year that will surely be referenced historically as having been disastarous for so many individuals and corporations. Not only for those individuals who suffered losses in their investment portfolios, but ordinary homeowners who believed in the theory that their home investment was their "nest egg."

Of course, good health and the love and friendship of family and friends should always be considered a valuable part of our "nest eggs." But when times are good and financially plentiful, we tend to overlook the value and security of these essentials and occasionally we need the reality check of difficult times to get us back on track.

Life insurance is another area that is minimized during times of plenty. However, maintaining (and for some) adding to your life insurance and annuities with the Polish Women's Alliance can be a very safe haven to invest your available monies and provides a guaranteed return. Regardless of family circumstances or your age, everyone should consider that life insurance is a valuable element of sound financial planning. In addition, life insurance or an annuity with the Polish Women's Alliance offers a wealth of fraternal benefits.

This brings me to reminding all of our paid-up members to watch your mail for our 110th Anniversary Maximizer Offer.

Without going through the explanation that was given in our November/December 2008 issue of Glos Polek, let me just say that taking advantage of this offer provides you with an increased face amount of insurance without the necessity of going through a medical exam or filling out any lengthy application forms. One payment is all it takes—a very simple and sound financial decision. If you have any questions either before or after receiving your offer, please do not hesitate to contact my office for more information.

A Reminder to our Group/Council Officers: Please be sure to return your annual group/council officer, bank reporting, and group activities forms to P.W.A. Headquarters by the deadline of January 31, 2009.

Finally, thank you to all of the Active Groups who so graciously accepted members from Inactive Groups into their ranks. Through this cooperative effort and with assistance from our District Presidents and Council Officers, we were able to successfully merge approximately 30 groups in 2008 and will continue this effort thru 2009. Our goal is to have no Inactive Groups remaining.

In closing, every Active Group needs to utilize the talents within its membership. This is especially true of the members who are now a part of your group due to having been merged and it is also true of our younger members. Make them feel welcomed. We all have special talents, sometimes hidden, which, when exposed, can be such a positive and refreshing force and can serve to revitalize and enrich even a very active group.

It can never be emphasized enough that our future depends upon the next generation taking over the reins – work with them, teach them, but also be open to learn from them.

Fraternally,

Antoinette Trela-Vander Noot Secretary/Treasurer

Insurance

Q. Can you please give me information on the current contribution limits for a Traditional IRA account. I am 48 years old. Barbara, llinois

A. Tax season is here and it is a very good idea to make an annual allowable contribution. You are asking for the contribution limits for a Traditional IRA account; however before I give you those numbers, I would like to remind you that there is another IRA that has been available since 1998. It is called the Roth IRA.

Contributions to a Traditional IRA may be tax deductible and the earnings are tax-deferred while accumulating in the account; they are taxable when the distribution is taken.

Contributions to a Roth IRA are not deductible and distributions, including earnings ,are tax-free if certain requirements are satisfied.

The annual limits for both Traditional IRAs and Roth IRAs are the same, and they are as follows:

2008 - $5,000 - plus $1,000 catch-up if you are age 50 or over. 2009 - $5,000 - plus $1,000 catch-up if you are age 50 or over.

As always, be sure to talk to your tax adviser and ask which plan is best for you. PWA offers both Traditional and Roth IRAs. We invite you to open an IRA with PWA today

An Invitation to a Book Signing

Chicago, IL–All members, book lovers, and history buffs are invited to a Book Signing co-sponsored by PWA District I and the Chicago Chapter of the Kosciuszko Foundation on Saturday, January 24, 2009, at 2 p.m. at the Polonia Bookstore, 4738 N. Milwaukee Ave.

The book is about Mieczyslaw Haiman, the historian, journalist, poet, author of a two-volume biography of Thaddeus Kosciuszko, well-known chronicler of Polish American history...and the founder and first curator of the Polish Museum of America.

Polish author Teresa Kaczorowska was able to write the book and research it here in the U.S. thanks to a Kosciuszko Foundation grant. The book is written in both Polish and English and was just released to coincide with the 60th anniversary of Haiman's death.

You can also meet the author at the opening of an exhibit devoted to Haiman's life at the Polish Museum of America on Sunday, January 25th, 2009.

"Mieczyslaw Haiman: Herodot Amerykanskiej Polonii" by Teresa Kaczorowska, published November 2008. The author has writtennine books, including one about Marie Sklodowska Curie and two about Katyn, one of which entitled "Children of the Katyn Massacre" was translated into English by Professor Frank Kujawinski.

Dr. Frank Kujawinski Group 188

Chicago, IL – Frank Kujawinski, Ph D, longtime member of Group 188, was the founder and moderator of the PWA Polish Book Club. Professor Kujawinski wanted to share his love and knowledge of Polish literature with everyone. Many non-Poles still attend the Book Club today, eager to learn more about the history of Poland. Professor Kujawinski worked with PWA to restore the Polish Studies Program at Loyola University where he was tenured. It is because of his efforts that Polish literature is still taught at Loyola today. We extend our sincere condolences to his wife Jo, his family, and many friends and students. He will be greatly missed.

2009 JAGIELLONIAN SCHOLARSHIP WINNING ESSAY

My Heritage By Daria A. Megotz

When I was getting ready to attend my first semester at Bucknell University, I felt as though I would finally have some independence and be able to explore who I really was. Well, I did just that. Yes, I did have the typical experience of a college freshman. I made new friends, got involved in more activities, finally left home and felt more responsible for myself and independent of my parents. However, this is not what defined me.

My defining moment came in a class called "Women and Gender Studies." My professor at the time posed a question to the class about what defines a woman today. The immediate answers that were blurted out were occupation, education, family, and accomplishments, but the strange thing was that no one said heritage. Later on that week, while working on some readings for this particular class, I wondered what defines me because I had not yet finished my education, I did not have a career...and then came the obvious answer: my family. I thought about our traditions and believe it or not, the first memory that came into my mind was the Polish Christmas carols that are sung at midnight mass every year at my parish. I also remembered the amazing and delicious haluski and kielbasa that the women at church always used to make for our annual block party. I soon realized that my Polish heritage is an intricate part of who I am. However, I also realized that I only knew limited details of my own heritage.

I believe that the Summer Program at the Jagiellonian University in Krakow, Poland, will provide me with many benefits in relation to my Polish heritage. As a student who is also an International Relations major, I am constantly told that the only way to learn about a foreign nation's culture, population, or traditions is to actually experience it firsthand. To actually spend four weeks in Poland would be an extremely valuable experience for me, not to mention that the Jagiellonian University has been a pinnacle of excellence in the higher education system of Poland since its founding in 1364. This period of time would give me the opportunity to experience the Polish language, Polish history, and potentially even to visit some of the famous attractions within Krakow that have become beacons of Polish culture. All of these aspects of Polish life are a part of my heritage and, most importantly, a part of me. I feel as though this would be the best way to learn about the traditions and history that gave me the values and foundation, which I have been raised to follow and love. This is the most significant benefit I intend to gain by attending this program.

There is also another practical benefit I plan to gain through my exploration of my Polish heritage and that is to further my education on matters dealing with international affairs. As an International Relations major, I have come to realize that the European Union, of which Poland is now part, has been gaining momentum as a world power in recent years. To actually be able to visit and stay in one of the member nations allows me to review the social, economic, and political workings of the European Union and Poland from a close and personal standpoint. I am proud that Poland has recently become a valuable component of the European Union. These types of connections between my heritage and my education provide me with a rewarding sense of accomplishment as someone of Polish descent.

Overall, I think the benefits of learning about my heritage in depth and in person at the Jagiellonian University would be irreplaceable. It would help me expand my educational horizons. Also, I feel it would give me a chance to define myself through my heritage. This is probably most important to me because I believe that a person builds their own legacy off of their foundations and my foundation is my Polish traditions, values, and heritage. I cannot think of a better way to start my legacy than with this experience of a lifetime.

Note: Addam Wawrzonek, the 2008 Jagiellonian Scholarship Winner, shares his experiences from Krakow this past summer in an article entitled "A Journey Home." You can read it on our website here: http://www.pwaa.org/youth.html#ARTICLE

LET'S COOK POLISH!!

In Poland, the last days before the beginning of Lent are devoted to celebrations and merrymaking—and to lots of tasty eating! Paczki are traditionally baked and consumed all week long, starting on "Fat Thursday," a week before Ash Wednesday, up to and including "Fat Tuesday." In the United States, "Paczki Day" is celebrated on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday. But with this recipe, you can enjoy paczki all year long!

PĄCZKI:

4 1/2 cups all-purpose flour; 3/4 cup sugar; 3/4 cup melted butter; 8 egg yolks; 2 tbs vanilla sugar; 3 oz fresh yeast (or 5 packs dry active yeast)*; 1/2 cup orange peel, fried in sugar and butter, finely diced, and cooled; 1 1/2 cups warm milk; pinch of salt; 2 tbs vodka or rum; 4–5 cups cooking oil (peanut oil is best); powdered sugar. For the filling: prune butter, raspberry jam, apricot jam, or rose preserves

1) In a small bowl, place fresh yeast, 1 the flour, 1 top sugar, and 1/2 cup warm milk. Mix well to form a paste. Cover with a dish cloth and set in a warm place.

2) Sift flour; separate eggs. Add sugar and and the vanilla sugar to egg yolks and beat to form a fluffy pale yellow mixture (in a bowl placed above a pot filled with hot water).

3) When the yeast has risen, add to flour; mix, and then add egg yolk mixture. Mix by hand in a large bowl (or in a food processor or bread machine), adding warm milk gradually to make a soft, fluffy dough that is not too wet.

4) When the dough stops sticking to the sides of the bowl, slowly add the warm (but not hot) melted butter, and continue mixing the dough until it no longer sticks to your hands. Add diced orange peel and vodka or rum. Cover and place in warm place for the dough to rise.

5) When the dough has doubled in size, tear off a piece the size of an egg and make a round patty. Place a teaspoon of filling on the patty and then roll the dough into a ball around the filling. Place formed paczki on a floured surface and cover with a dishcloth for about 15 minutes, until they rise.

6) Place paczki carefully in hot oil and cook until golden in color on both sides. To get the white ring in the middle of the paczki (like the ones you buy from the bakery) be sure to cover your pot when you turn the paczki over.

7) Take out paczki and drain on a plate covered with paper towels. Sprinkle with powdered sugar (or add icing) when paczki have cooled.

GOTUJMY PO POLSKU!!

W Polsce, ostatnie dni przed Wielkim Postem przebiegają na zabawach i ucztach z suto zastawionymi stołami! Tradycyjnie, pączki piecze się i spożywa przez cały tydzień poprzedzający Środę Popielcową, tzn. od Tłustego Czwartku do Tłustego Wtorku. W Stanach Zjednoczonych tzw. "Pączki Day" "celebrowany" jest w ostatni dzień karnawału–Tłusty Wtorek. Ale ten przepis pozwoli Państwu cieszyć się pączkami przez cały rok.

3. Podrośnięte drożdże dodać do mąki, dodać też utarte żółtka. Ciasto wyrabiać rękami (niektóre panie wypróbowały robot kuchenny i maszynkę do wypieku chleba) i dodając tyle ciepłego mleka by ciasto było miękkie, pulchne i sprężyste, a nie rzadkie. 4. Gdy ciasto zacznie odchodzić od miski wlewać stopniowo rozpuszczone, ciepłe (nie gorące) masło i wyrabiać do czasu gdy ciasto będzie łatwo odchodzić od rąk i od miski. 5. Gdy ciasto podwoi swoją objętość, odrywać porcje wielkości kurzego jajka i robić placuszki, nakładać do nich, powideł i zlepiać, formując pączki. Układać je na posypanej mąką deseczce, przykryć ściereczką do wyrośnięcia (ok. 15 minut).

Życie nie jest tak krótkie, by nie było w nim czasu na uprzejmość. (Ralph Waldo Emerson)

Etykieta związana z kwiatami

Kwiaty podajemy po powitaniu, rozpakowane z papieru (mogą być zawinięte w przeźroczysty celofan). Podajemy je oburącz główkami do góry. Lewą ręką trzymamy je na dole, a prawą podtrzymujemy blisko główek. Nie wręczamy kwiatów w przedpokoju. Najpierw zdejmujemy wierzchnie okrycie, potem zostajemy wprowadzeni do pokoju, i tam, po przywitaniu się, wręczamy kwiaty.

Liczba wręczanych kwiatów, jeśli nie jest ich dużo, powinna być nieparzysta. W Stanach Zjednoczonych 12 kwiatów (a specialnie róż) to ilość właściwa i tradycyjna, ale w Europie i wszędzie indziej parzysta ilość jest niewłaściwa. Prawie wszędzie 13 kwiatów uważane jest za feralną liczbę.

Kiedy chcemy wziąć kwiaty do szpitala, to powinniśmy przynieść je we flakonie, albo zamówić w kwiaciarni, a wtedy będą one dostarczone w wazonie albo koszyku. Warto też sprawdzić, jakie reguły obowiązują w danym szpitalu i czy można przynosić kwiaty na oddział.

Wernisaż ArtPo – "Początek drogi"

Dnia 17 stycznia w godzinach od 12:00 do 18:00, w salach siedziby Związku Polek w Chicago odbędzie się wernisaż grupy artystycznej ArtPo, na który wszystkich zainteresowanych serdecznie zapraszamy.

ArtPo jest organizacją artystyczną zrzeszającą artystów polskiego pochodzenia i działającą w Chicago od dwóch lat, a od jesieni 2008 r. zrzeszoną w Związku Polek w Ameryce jako Grupa # 822.

W październiku, z okazji Miesiąca Dziedzictwa Polskiego, czterech członków grupy (K. Babiracki, M. Gołąbek, M. Niziołek i L. Rozmus) wystawili swoje prace w Northeastern University w Chicago.

Pod października koniec grupa zorganizowała plener, podczas którego powstała instalacja artystyczna "Okna do lasu". Artyści skorzystali z goscinności Państwa Żaczków, którzy udostepnili im swoja posiadłość na Kruczej Polanie w Wisconsin. Uczestnikami pleneru i autorami "happeningu" byli: K. Babiracki, M. Gołąbek, J. Kapturska, S. Kielar, E. Kostyrko, M. Niziołek, R. Niziołek, L. Rozmus, K. Szcześniewska i E.Żaczek. W grudniu, w Art Galery Kafé odbył się pokaz filmu i zdjęć z tego wydarzenia.

Wystawą "Poczatek drogi" rozpoczynamy działalność jako członkowie Związku Polek i z tej okazji pragniemy podziękować za serdeczne przyjęcie do programu prac tej zasłużonej organizacji i wyrazić nadzieję na długie i owocne lata współpracy.

"MOJA WIERNA MOWO"

Porady językowe według Jana Miodka i innych polskich językoznawców

"Do Siego Roku! czy Dosiego Roku!... i co to znaczy?

Tylko pierwsza forma jest poprawna, tzn. piszemy osobno. "Si" to zapomniany już zaimek wskazujący, który znaczył tyle co "ten" (były jeszcze sia - 'ta' i sie - 'to'), a "siego" to jego forma dopełniaczowa, tak jak "tego". Dawniej "Do siego roku" było formułką życzeń wigilijnych i dotyczyło tych kilku ostatnich dni starego roku. Przy dzieleniu się opłatkiem mówiono np.: Życzę ci, kumie, sąsiedzie, "do siego roku", tzn. obyś doczekał w zdrowiu "tego roku, który nadejdzie". Dzisiaj życzenia te mają związek z całym rozpoczynającym się rokiem, składane są na Nowy Rok i oznaczają "obyśmy doczekali do przyszłego, następnego roku".

"Cyfra" i "liczba"

Słowa te różnią się znaczeniem, choć dotyczą tej samej sfery. "Liczba" to pewna ilość czegoś, która może być wyrażona "cyframi" lub "słowami". "Liczby" zapisuje się za pomocą "cyfr", których jest tylko dziesięć: 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. "Liczb" jest nieskończenie wiele.

Uniwersytet Jagielloński -Alma Mater Jagiellonica -Akademia Krakowska

"Aby wydała mężów dojrzałością rady znakomitych"takie przesłanie umieścił w akcie erekcyjnym Akademii z dnia 12 maja 1364 roku Kazimierz Wielki. Akademia Krakowska była drugim po Pradze uniwersytetem w Europie Środkowej. Wykłady rozpoczęły się w roku 1367, ale śmierć króla w 1370 r. doprowadziła do zaniechania działalności uczelni, i dopiero w 1400 r., dzięki staraniom królowej Jadwigi i Władysława Jagiełły, nastąpiło odnowienie uniwersytetu. Powołano katedrę teologii i pierwsze w Europie samodzielne katedry matematyki i astronomii. Wiek XV i początek XVI w. to czasy wielkiego rozkwitu Akademii; jej najznakomitszym studentem był w tym czasie Mikołaj Kopernik, a pod koniec XVI w. dodawali uczelni sławy Jan Kochanowski, Andrzej Frycz Modrzewski i Mikołaj Rej.

W wiekach XVII i XVIII Akademia Krakowska przeżywała kryzys, i dopiero gruntowna reforma uczelni, przeprowadzona z ramienia Komisji Edukacji Narodowej przez Hugona Kołłątaja, przywróciła, niestety tylko na kilkanaście lat, strukturę i atmosferę umożliwiającą badania i nauczanie.

W czasie rozbiorów znaczenie i poziom Uniwersytetu Jagiellońskiego (ta nazwa została ustanowiona w r. 1816) podupadły znacznie, i dopiero przyznanie autonomii Galicji (1867) poprawiło sytuację na tyle, że uczelnia przeżywała w tym czasie tzw. drugi okres świetności. Prowadzili tu swoje badania naukowe Karol Olszewski i Zygmunt Wróblewski, i wykładali sławni humaniści: Józef Szujski, Stanisław Smolka, Kazimierz Morawski i Stanisław Estreicher.

Na początku XX wieku studiowało tu ok. 3 tys. studentów, a w tym pierwsze kobiety. Po odzyskaniu niepodległości UJ był najważniejszym spośród polskich uniwersytetów. W tym okresie działali na uczelni: Tadeusz Banachiewicz, Jan Łoś, Tadeusz Lehr-Spławiński, Adam Krzyżanowski, Tadeusz Sinko i Władysław Konopczyński.

W czasie II wojny światowej uniwersytet był zamknięty. Nauczanie odbywało się na Tajnym Uniwersytecie Jagiellońskim, którego rektorem był znany botanik, profesor Władysław Szafer.

Bezpośrednio po wojnie, mimo cenzury i zahamowania badań, działali na uniwersytecie tacy znani naukowcy, jak: Stanisław Pigoń, Juliusz Kleiner i Władysław Wolter. Studiował tu także Karol Wojtyła, późniejszy papież. Po przełomie 1956 roku sytuacja uczelni poprawiła się, a z okazji 600-lecia (1964 r.) uniwersytet znacznie się rozbudował. W tym czasie wykładali tu, między innymi, Adam Vetulani, Karol Estreicher (młodszy) i wybitni matematycy - Franciszek Leja i Stanisław Gołąb.

W ostatnich latach uniwersytet rozwija coraz bardziej współpracę międzynarodową i jest członkiem m.in. Grupy Coimbra i Europaeum, zrzeszających najbardziej prestiżowe uniwersytety świata.

Legenda o Nawojce

Wśród wielu barwnych krakowskich legend istnieje opowieść o Nawojce. Nawojka to imię dziewczyny, która w przebraniu chłopca, jako "Andrzej" (a także "Jakub"), studiowała na Akademii Krakowskiej w czasach średniowiecza, kiedy kobiety nie miały do tego prawa. Niektórzy historycy uważają, że jeśli ta opowieść jest prawdziwą, to Nawojka studiowała w latach 1407-1409.

Po raz pierwszy wspomina historię Nawojki austriacki opat Martin z Leibitz, w roku 1429. Istnieje kilka różniących się wersji tej opowieści. Jedna z nich mówi, że Nawojka była córką nauczyciela szkoły kościelnej w Gnieźnie, i że w domu nauczono ją pisania i czytania po polsku i po łacinie. Możliwe jest także, ze była sierotą, która odziedziczyła majątek i z "miłości do nauki" wstąpiła na studia. Istnieje także wersja, że Nawojka nie pochodziła z Gniezna, tylko z Dobrzynia nad Wisłą.

Według legendy, Nawojka miała na uniwersytecie opinię bardzo dobrego i poważnego studenta i obiecującego naukowca.

Po dwóch latach studiów, kiedy przygotowywała się do egzaminów bakalarskich, została zdemaskowana, ponoć przez syna wójta z Gniezna, który właśnie wstąpił do Akademii. Inna wersja podaje, że dwaj żołnierze rozpoznali ją po sposobie chodzenia, a inna jeszcze, że Nawojka rozchorowała się i lekarz odkrył prawdę.

Nawojkę postawiono przed sądem rektorskim. Kary, najprawdopodobniej bardzo surowej, uniknęła dzięki znakomitym świadectwom nauki i moralności wystawionym przez profesorów. Legenda mówi, że sama poprosiła, aby móc wstąpić do klasztoru, gdzie złożyła śluby, prowadziła szkołę nowicjatu, a po latach została ksienią.

Dopiero prawie 500 lat później, w roku 1897, władze Uniwersytetu Jagiellońskiego po raz pierwszy zezwoliły kobietom na studia, a w 1906 kobiety miały prawo zostać pracownikami naukowymi uczelni.

Pieśni studenckie

"Gaudeamus igitur" to najstarsza pieśń studencka, której tradycja sięga czasów założenia Universytetu w Bolonii (1088 r). Słowa oparte są na łacińskim manuskrypcie z 1287 roku, a melodia na kościelnym hymnie skomponowanym przez biskupa Bolonii, Strada, w 1267 roku. Pieśń ma charakter żartobliwy, lekki, sławi bowiem radość życia, młodość, Academię, profesorów i studentów; miejscami frywolna, a także całkiem poważna, kiedy przypomina o tym, jak krótkie jest nasze życie. Pieśń ta towarzyszy ceremonii inauguracji roku akademickiego na Uniwersytecie Jagiellońskim i jest także hymnem z okazji graduacji na wielu uniwersytetach europejskich i amerykańskich. Bez względu na okazję, zawsze śpiewana jest po łacinie. Obok swojej poważnej funkcji, pieśń ta towarzyszy również studenckiej zabawie.

Znakomite wykonanie pierwszej, najbardziej charakterystycznej zwrotki pieśni zostało nagrane przez tenora Mario Lanza i można je usłyszeć na internecie.

Pierwsze dwie zwrotki "Gaudeamus igitur" (po łacinie, po polsku i po angielsku):

- Gaudeamus igitur Iuvenes dum sumus! Post iucundam iuventutem Post molestam senectutem Nos habebit humus [...] Vivat Academia! Vivant Professores! Vivat membrum quodlibet! Vivant membrum quaelibet! Semper sint in flore,
- Weselmy się więc Pókiśmy, młodzi, Po przyjemnej młodości Po przykrej starości, (i tak) przyjmie nas ziemia [...] Niech żyje Uczelnia, Niech żyją profesorowie, Niech żyję każdy członek (Uczelni) Niech żyją wszyscy (jej) członkowie Wciąż niechaj się odmładzają
- Let us rejoice therefore While we are young. After a pleasant youth After the troubles of old age The earth will have us. [...] Long live the academy! Long live the teachers! Long live each student! Long live all the students! May they always flourish!

"Pieśń Filaretów" Adama Mickiewicza, napisana dla tajnej organizacji studenckiej na Uniwersytecie Wileńskim, chociaż pełna młodzieńczej radości i zapraszająca do wychylenia "czary" i używania życia, to wyraża przede wszystkim ideały młodych romantyków polskich – mówi o przyjaźni, o przewadze uczuć nad intelektem, o przekuwaniu zamiarów w czyny, o wspólnym dobru, o walce i o narodzie. Jest ciągle jeszcze pieśnią biesiadną polskiej młodzieży studenckiej.

"Pieśń Filaretów" (3 pierwsze zwrotki) Adam Mickiewicz 1820:

Hej, użyjmy żywota! Wszak żyjem tylko raz; Niechaj ta czara złota Nie próżno wabi nas. Cyrkla, wagi i miary. Do martwych użyj brył; Mierz siłę na zamiary, Nie zamiar podług sił. Bo gdzie się serca palą, Cyrklem uniesień duch, Dobro powszechną skalą, Jedność większa od dwóch.

Zabawa z Mikołajem — (Christmas Party — Council 27)

Szóstego grudnia, w salach ZPwA nasi najmłodsi i ich rodzice mieli radość uczestniczenia w Zabawie z Mikołajem, zorganizowanej przez Komisję 27. Serdecznie witając gości zabawę otworzyła prezes ZPwA pani Virginia Sikora; zabrały głos także prezes Komisji 27. pani Czesława Kolak i prezes Okregu I. pani Lidia Filus.

Głównymi częściami programu było przygotowywanie ozdób choinkowych, przegląd talentów, rozdanie prezentów, loteria, no i oczywiście smakowita pizza.

Prawdziwego świątecznego nastroju dodał padający śnieg; tak więc Mikołaj mógł przywieźć podarunki na saniach. Dzieci zabawiała pani Iwona Puc (Gr. 816), a Mikołajem był Rene Pietrzyk. Za ich role w tej uroczystości należą się serdeczne podziękowania.

Podziękowania należą się także paniom, które pomagały w zorganizowaniu tego świątecznego wydarzenia, tzn. Virginia Sikora, Antoinette Trela Vander Noot (odpowiedzialna za loterię), Maryla Folmer i Teresa Makowski. Serdeczne podziękowania za przybycie kierujemy do wszystkich dzieci i rodziców. W zbiorach Muzeum Uniwersytetu Jagiellońskiego Muzeum Uniwersytetu Jagiellońskiego mieści się w najstarszym i najpiękniejszym budynku uczelni – Collegium Maius. Obok wspaniałych pomieszczeń z oryginalnym umeblowaniem, w muzeum znajduje się Skarbiec i Pokój Kopernika.

Skarbiec – w oszklonym sejfie, obok eksponowanych insygni rektorskich: berła z XV w., łańcucha i pierścieni, szczególne miejsce zajmuje "Globus Jagielloński" (1 poł. XVI wieku), będący w rzeczywistości mechaniczną sferą armiralną z globusem w środku. Po raz pierwszy w historii kartografii globusowej zaznaczona została na nim Ameryka, z podpisem America noviter reperta (Ameryka świeżo odkryta).

Pokój Kopernika - nazwa pokoju pochodzi od stałej ekspozycji poświeconej Mikołajowi Kopernikowi, który studiował w Akademii Krakowskiej w latach 1491-1495. Obok kilku portretów astronoma, eksponowany jest unikatowy zespół instrumentów astronomiczno-astrologicznych z 2 poł. XV wieku oraz arabskie astrolabium, wykonane w 1054 r. w Kordobie.
