The Christmas Story

For unto us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government shall be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this. — Isaiah 9:6

"In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to his own town to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.' Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom his favor rests.' When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened which the Lord has told us about.' So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about the child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told."

Luke 2:1-17

My Dear Friends — This Christmas season think about giving these gifts:

To your enemy . . . forgiveness,

To a customer . . . service.

To your opponent . . . tolerance.

To all men . . . charity.

To a friend . . . your heart.

To every child . . . a good example.

To yourself . . . respect.

Merry Christmas! — Vesele Vianoce!

Warmly, Carolyn

A LIFE OF PREPARATION!

Reverend Monsignor Peter M. Polando, National Chaplain

My dear Sisters and Brothers,

A profound task that a priest possesses within his ministry is that of preparation of a couple for the Sacrament of Marriage. I really enjoy my meetings with couples as they contemplate becoming future wives and husbands. I am challenged by their reactions to the questions that I pose to them of how, when, and where they met each other, why they love each other, when and where their engagement took place, and most importantly to me, why have they decided to affirm their love and lifelong commitment to each other as spouses in the Catholic Church.

Catholics believe that marriage is a sacrament that does last “until death do us part” or “all the days of our life”. But we are cognizant of the fact that Christian marriage is challenged because of our cultural, disposable mentality – “if I do not like it, I will just get rid of it”. Statistics reveal that Catholics are in the mainstream of our American culture so much so that almost one in two marriages end in divorce. This has come to such a grave concern to the bishops and priests of the Province of Cincinnati that all gathered in convocation in the autumn of 2009 in Columbus, OH, to discuss the necessity of preparing engaged couples more comprehensively and theologically for the Sacrament of Marriage. The sacredness and lifelong unitive factors must be emphasized so that woman and man may see their relationship to one another in Christian marriage paralleled to the sacred relationship between Christ and His bride, the Church.

Undertaking this lifelong endeavor takes much preparation. Within my diocesan Church, a couple must meet with the priest at least three times and with a marriage preparation couple for a minimum of three to five sessions. Is this enough? How can anyone evaluate adequate preparation for such a life long decision? Time, commitment, communication, and dedication are the guidelines for an aspiring couple. Can this guarantee that the couple will have a successful marriage or will they become another “statistic”? The priest, the preparation couple and the individuals preparing for marriage do not have the proverbial crystal ball in front of them, but hopefully the engaged couple will view marriage as a serious life decision that will enhance their lives, bless them with fruitful and grace filled years, and bestow upon them the gift of human life in their children and grandchildren.

Once again, we find ourselves in the midst of the last month of the calendar year, ritually preparing ourselves and our homes for the celebration of Christmas! Although there is the hustle and bustle that traditionally seems necessary for the celebration of the season – cards to be written and sent; trees and houses to be festively decorated and admired; batches of nut, poppy seed, and apricot kolachi to be baked and shared; gifts to be selected and carefully wrapped; and, renewal of love for our family and friends – we, as Catholics, know there is a religious tradition that calls us to spiritually prepare ourselves intently to assist us in making this the Season! Our faith and hope point to the reality of our salvation; this Season is the anniversary of the beginning of our salvation.

The Church’s new year at Advent directs us to prepare for the anniversary of Christ’s birth. Advent affords you and me to review our relationships with Jesus and one another through our understanding of His preaching and teachings. It is the several weeks when we evaluate whether we are making the right choices and decisions that have the lasting affects for our salvation. But this only becomes a reality if we readily take the time, the commitment, are able to communicate, and fervently dedicate ourselves to the Faith we profess. No one outside of ourselves can grade us on how we profess this Faith, only we, in our individual personhoods, can do this.

There are many guides to assist us – the Sacred Scriptures, the teachings of the Church, the lives of the saints, a spiritual director, and the grace of the sacraments, to name a few. We must be disciplined by taking time out of our busy schedules in order to pray to Almighty God daily. We do this through the formal prayers that we have learned or in our own personal outpouring of praise, thanksgiving and petition to our God. But our prayerful communication with God cannot be a one way street. We have to listen to God speaking to us especially in the world that surrounds us. By opening our hearts to God’s Word, we immerse ourselves in the God who created us and thus are able to do God’s will, not just ours! In this fashion we become more dedicated to the work that God calls us to in our daily lives.

All of this leads us to a life of preparation not only for the particular religious events of the liturgical year but also preparation for the Beatific Vision, our encounter with our God face to face at the end of our lives. The liturgical seasons of the Church year assist you and me in making sure that we continue to dedicate our lives to our God and are review points to evaluate how we are doing in our relationship with God. May your Advent be fruitful and through the intercession of the Mother of God, may we rejoice at the event of our salvation, Christmas – God becomes Flesh for us.

Vesele Vianocel!

How To Have A Healthy Christmas

Sue Ann M. Seich

As we prepare for Christmas we make all kinds of lists. We may make a gift list, guest list, grocery list, etc. But have you ever considered making a list that will help you get through the holidays physically feeling better?

Here is a to-do list with helpful hints to keep you happier and healthier:

- Get plenty of sleep. (Lack of sleep decreases your body's ability to fight off infection.)
- Don't stay up late. (Staying up late will alter your natural body clock and cause you to be more stressed and accident prone.)
- Watch weather reports. (Remember bad weather increases the time to accomplish tasks and can cause accidents.)
- Eat a nutritious breakfast to start the day. (Try eating whole wheat toast, a fruit such as an apple or banana or some protein in an egg or peanut butter.)

- Wash your hands more than usual. (Germs are passed from other people not cold temperatures. A lot more hugging and kissing is shared during the holidays.)

With a little thought and planning you will be able to enjoy the holidays without illness and also be able to make Christmas much more enjoyable for your family and friends. Years later no one will remember the little stuff like a perfectly set table but they will remember who sat at that table and how much they enjoyed the time spent with family and friends.

We enjoyed this past year reaching out to you, our members. We wish you a relaxing, enjoyable, and healthy Christmas season, taking one day at a time.

“MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!”

A Follow Up To The Special Convention

On this page and page 13 you have a chance to view a collage of photos from the special convention held on October 11th in Cleveland, OH at The Renaissance Hotel. By now you know that the proposed by-law change which would have empowered the delegate elected Board of Directors to hire the managing officers and the editor failed to pass with the required two-thirds majority. While this was certainly a disappointment the good news is that 62% of the delegates in attendance voted in the affirmative and means that we are on the right track in addressing the risk faced by our Association.

As I mentioned in my column in the September issue of Fraternally Yours, the proposed changes were designed to protect our Association in an increasingly complex world by placing greater accountability with both our management team and our Board of Directors. Had the proposed change passed the convention delegates would have continued to elect our Board and then empowered the Board they elected to hire the President/CEO. Once the President/CEO was in place, the National Secretary/ (COO), the National Treasurer/CFO and the Editor would have been hired with full board approval.

There are many reasons that this form of governance makes sense and is the right course of action for our Association. Other fraternal organizations have already adopted this governance structure because they know it means greater protection for members. Given that a majority voted "yes" we know that it will only be a matter of time before these needed changes will be approved.

We know that as a Board of Directors we must go back to the table and prepare for the next round. This change is necessary and in the best interest of our Association because we cannot allow an unqualified candidate for one of our top offices run a successful campaign based on popularity and then put our Association in peril! The complexity of our business has grown, as has the regulatory environment in which we operate; therefore, we can no longer hope that the right people with the right skills will be elected to run the FCSLA – now a corporation with assets in excess of 600 million dollars.

We appreciate the participation we had at the special convention and recognize that we fell just a little bit short of making history. We were saddened that someone felt the need to circulate unsigned and inaccurate material by mail prior to the convention and also by leaving it around the meeting rooms. We welcome and value all opinions but cannot address anonymous ones ...if you disagree let us know why, but please sign your name so that we can open a constructive dialogue with you!

Rest assured that we will continue to work with our members to help them understand why this change is necessary, so that the next time we meet to discuss this change, we can all be on the same informed page. Throughout our 118 year history this organization has always made the difficult decisions that have kept us alive and growing – I trust that the next time we will be successful in making this important governance change that will honor our past and protect our future!

Two Celebrations of 50th Jubilee for Sister Joan Marie Massura, OSB

Sister Joan Marie Massura, OSB, (Sr. Branch 485) former science/math teacher and counselor at Andean High School celebrated her 50th Jubilee as a professed Sister. It was a trifecta celebration.

On June 28, 2008 at the Motherhouse of the Sisters of SS. Cyril and Methodius, Sister Joan Marie celebrated her 50th with the Sisters who entered with her in 1955, Sisters Bernadette Marie Ondus and Sister Mary Anne Nemec, former teachers at Andean High School.

On July 20, 2008 at Our Lady of Grace Monastery, Beech Grove, IN, Sister Joan Marie celebrated her 50th with her monastic community. Father Gordon Judd, CSB, Vicar General for the Basilian Community was the homilist, and Father Ken Decker, CSB, Superior General, concelebrated.

On August 3, 2008, at the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception, University of St. Mary of the Lake, Mundelein, IL, again celebrated her 50th with her entire family. Father Gordon Judd was the celebrant and homilist.

Sister entered the Sisters of SS. Cyril and Methodius, October 2, 1955 and in July 2000 transferred her vows to the Sisters of St. Benedict, Our Lady of Grace Monastery, Beech Grove, IN.

Sister taught at Andean from 1969-1979 and 1984-1985. She ministered to the teens at CYO as the Director of Youth Ministry from 1980-1984. She then went on to be the CYO Director of Youth Ministry for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

She also served as Vocation Director for her Benedictine Community and presently is the Director of Program at Benedict Inn Retreat and Conference Center, Beech Grove, IN.

Sister continues many strong relationships with her former students throughout these many years. Former students ask her to be Godmother, Sponsor for Confirmation, and she is often invited to weddings and other momentous celebrations.

Sister is noted for counseling teens with problems. She has gone to court for them, worked with runaway youth and recently designed and executed a Youth Leadership Program at Benedict Inn this past July.

Sister is grateful for the many graces and blessings she has received from God. She is grateful for all the students and friends who have touched her lives these 50 years.

Congratulations Sister – your FCSLA family is proud of you too and asks God to continue to bless you as you continue to do HIS work in your community.

Sister Barbara Kolesar Celebrates Golden Jubilee

Sister Barbara Kolesar, O.P. (Sr. Branch 301, Canton, OH) celebrated her Golden Jubilee as a Dominican Sister in Columbus, OH. Sister became a professed Dominican Sister of the former St. Mary of the Springs in Columbus, Ohio on July 9, 1960. Since that time seven communities of Dominicans united and are now known as Dominican Sisters of Peace.

Sister became interested in the Dominicans in elementary school when she was taught by Sisters from the Order in 4th to 8th grades. When she was in 6th grade, the sisters asked three students to help them iron their long habits during lunch hour. She was thrilled to help them and when she returned to her classroom, she found a holy card in her books with the picture of Christ on it with the words, "You I seek, you I mean, you, yes, you, I love you." From that day on, she knew she was going to become as Dominican Sister.

As a child, her family, including brothers John and Francis, walked to church three miles each way since the family didn't have a car. Her dad, John, like so many immigrants worked in the coal mines and her Mom, Mary, laundered the priests' albs and altar clothes. Sister said, "My parent's hard work, love for God and dedication to the church served as an inspiration both to myself and my brother, Msgr. John C. Kolesar, who has been a priest in the Steubenville diocese for 46 years."

Sister Barbara taught first and second grades for 35 years in many parishes in Ohio, Michigan, and Connecticut, an enjoyed every day of it. Currently, she is a pastoral Assistant at Our Lady of Peace, a position she has held for the past ten years. She serves on many parish committees and conducts Scripture Sharing Groups in Advent and Lent. She works with Extraordinary Ministers, Lectors and Servers and cantors at many Masses.

Congratulations and God's continued blessings on Sister Barbara as she celebrates 50 years of service to God and her community.

SLOVAK DAY 2010 AT KENNYWOOD PARK IN PITTSBURGH

Michael J. Kopanic, Jr., Ph.D.

Since 1923, Kennywood Amusement Park in Pittsburgh has been home to a summer day of celebration and fun — Slovak American Day. And that tradition continues. This year, the Western Pennsylvanian Slovak Day Cultural Association hosted the 87th annual event on Thursday, July 15, 2010.

On this particular occasion, organizers dedicated Slovak Day to Cecilia Yaniga Sarocky, who since 1984 had served as general chairperson of the festivities, until her death on June 8, 2010. Dolores Sakal did a superb job of filling her shoes as chairperson, but all in attendance acknowledged a debt of gratitude for Cece's many years of service and dedication to promoting Slovak events and organizations.

The First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association featured a table to promote our fraternal society, and offered some souvenirs for attendees. Cynthia Maleski, who serves on the FCSLA board, answered questions for those wishing to know more about our organization and its many benefits.

The early afternoon events featured the lively dancing and splendid singing of children and youth from the Junior Pittsburgh Slovaks and the PAS Junior Dance Group.

The opening ceremony paid tribute to Mrs. Sarocky and a number of special guests, including Slovak Ambassador Peter Burian and Pavel Hagyar, the mayor of Pittsburgh's sister city, Prešov, and his dashing wife, Jana. The Rev. Joseph Grosko of Holy Trinity Church, who is also the President of the Western Pa. Slovak Day Committee, delivered the invocation, and George Matta II served as Master of the Ceremonies.

PAS Junior Dance Group.

As is typical for this time of year, it was a hot and sunny day. All attending could enjoy a hearty lunch for the bargain price of just six dollars at the Slovenská kuchyna (Slovak Kitchen). The meal chalupky (stuffed cabbage), pirohy, halušky (cabbage and noodles), a klobasa sandwich, and ceregy (pastry).

Following the introductions and tributes, the Most Rev. Lawrence E. Brandt, the Bishop of Greensburg, celebrated Holy Mass. Concelebrating were priests and seminarians from many dioceses – Pittsburgh, Greensburg, and Altoona-Johnstown. Most of the Mass was recited in English, but the singing was in our beloved Slovak language, accompanied by organist Leonard Potemra and the splendid cantor, Robert Ponchak.

Lively music and dancing followed the Mass. PÁS, the Pittsburgh Area Slovak Folk Ensemble, first performed a lively set of dances and song, concluding with the Men's Jánošík valaška (axe) dance. The colorful Pittsburgh Slovaks continued the entertainment with a fine display of poise, talent, and healthy humor. The Pittsburgh area is indeed blessed with some very talented performers, who practice and work very hard to carry on our treasured Slovak traditions and culture.

Many people deserve recognition for the success of Slovak Day, including all the performers, the many unnamed volunteers, and all those who cooked, set up exhibits, and donated their time in preparing and making the occasion a great success.

Likewise, the sponsors of the event deserve credit, including the National Slovak Society, the First Catholic Slovak Union, the First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association, the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, the Greek Catholic Union, the Slovak Savings Bank, the Western PA Slovak Day Committee, and other generous sponsors. The financial and moral support of so many Slovak-Americans, as well as their prayers, have helped make this event something to look forward to each and every year.

Presov Mayor Pavel Hagyar and wife Jana at lunch.

Narodenie Ježiša Krista A Poklona Troch Kráľov

Bohuslav Zeman SSP

Čítam

Lk 2, 7; Mt 2, 1-12

Mária a Jozef prišli do Betlehema. Jediným pokojným a pohostinným miestom, kde sa mohli uchýliť, bola maštafka v jaskyni. Kým tam boli, nadišiel Márii čas pôrodu. A narodilo sa dieťa Ježiš, ktoré Mária nosila pod srdcom. Mária ovinula svojho prvorodeného syna do plienok a uložila ho do jasieľ.

Po istom čase prišli do Jeruzalema mudrci z ďalekých východných krajín a vypytovali sa:

– Kde je novonarodený židovský kráľ? Videli sme jeho hviezdu na východe a prišli sme sa mu pokloniť.

Keď to počul kráľ Herodes, zľakol sa, lebo nechcel nikomu odovzdať svoj trón. Zvolal kňazov a múdrych zákonníkov.

– Kde sa má narodiť Mesiáš? – vyzvedal sa.

– V Betleheme. – odpovedali mu veľkňazi a zákonníci. –
Lebo tak predpovedali proroci.

Nato si dal Herodes potajomky zavolať mudrcov a povedal im o mieste, kde sa narodil Spasiteľ.

– Choďte do Betlehema a dôkladne sa vypytujte na dieťa. Keď ho nájdete, oznámte mi, aby som sa mu aj ja šiel pokloniť.

Mudrci si kráľa vypočuli a odišli. A hľa, hviezda, ktorú videli na východe, išla pred nimi, až sa zastavila nad miestom, kde bolo dieťa. Keď vošli do domu, uvideli dieťa Ježiša s jeho mamou Máriou, Mudrci sa veľmi potešili. Padli na zem a klaňali sa mu. Potom otvorili svoje pokladnice a dali malému Ježišovi dary: zlato, kadidlo a myrru. A pretože vo sne dostali pokyn, aby sa nevracali k Herodesovi, inou cestou sa vrátili do svojej krajiny.

The Birth of Jesus and the Visit from Three Wise Men

Bohuslav Zeman SSP

I Read

Luke 2:7; Matthew 2:1-12

Mary and Joseph arrived in Bethlehem. The only peaceful and hospitable place which had room for them was a little stable in a grotto. This is where the time came for Mary to give birth to the Baby she had been carrying under her heart. When Baby Jesus was finally born, His mother wrapped Him in bands of cloth and laid Him in a manger.

Some time later, Three Wise Men from the East arrived in Jerusalem and asked, 'Where is the newly born King of the Jews? We have seen His star and we have come to worship Him.'

When King Herod heard this, he was frightened because he did not want to hand his throne over to anybody. Then he called together priests and scribes and asked them, 'Where is the Saviour to be born?'

'In Bethlehem. This is what the prophets have been foretelling,' they replied.

Then King Herod called for the Three Wise Men and told them about the Saviour's place of birth.

'Go to Bethlehem. And when you have found the Child, let me know, so that I can go and worship Him too.'

The Magi thanked him and set out on their journey. The Star that they had followed on their journey from the East continued to guide them until they reached the place where the Baby was. This is where the star stopped. When they came inside, they saw Jesus with His Mother, Mary. The Three Wise Men were overjoyed. They knelt down and worshipped Him. Then, they opened their treasure-chests and offered Baby Jesus their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. And because they had been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Slovak Heritage Society Enjoys Picnic

Various Slovak dishes highlighted the buffet menu — from goulash to several recipes of holupki, prepared pickles and salads, two kinds of haluski, various homemade cookies and rolls — concluding with corn-on-the-cob.

Special Slovak prizes were part of the afternoon raffle, plus guessing games of dessert treats and surprise boxes. Singing of Slovak tunes filled the air with gusty sounds of joyful expressions by all. John Simkovich from Hazelton, PA provided keyboard accompaniment.

A female foursome of the Society Board provided a very special entertainment, singing the well-known number, "Katarina"... complete with choreographic expressions! The foursome included Membership Chair, Mary Migatulski, Wilkes-Barre; Corresponding Secretary, Bernadette Yencha, Wilkes-Barre; Financial Advisor, Magdalen Benish, Plains; and Recording Secretary, Anna M. Hudock, Plains.

The afternoon concluded with awarding of door prizes and prayers of thanks for a wonderful day.

CHOCOLATE CRINKLES COOKIES

- 3 eggs
- 1½ cups granulated sugar
- 4 ounces unsweetened chocolate, melted
- ½ cup vegetable oil
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- sifted confectioners' sugar

In a large mixing bowl, using an electric mixer, beat eggs, sugar, chocolate, oil, baking powder, and vanilla until blended. Beat in as much of the flour with the mixer as possible, then stir in the remaining flour. Cover and chill the cookie dough for 2 hours.

Shape dough into 1-inch balls. Roll in sifted confectioners' sugar, coating well. Place balls of cookie dough about 1 inch apart on ungreased cookie sheets and bake in a 375 degree oven for 8 to 10 minutes, until cracks appear. Transfer cookies to a wire rack to cool. Sprinkle with more confectioners' sugar if desired. Makes about 48 cookies.

NO-BAKE ALL-TIME FAVORITES

- 4 ounces butter or margarine
- ½ cup milk
- 2 cups sugar
- ¾ cup semisweet chocolate chips
- 4 tablespoons peanut butter
- 3 cups oats, quick or old-fashioned
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Place chocolate chips, peanut butter, oats, and vanilla in a large mixing bowl.

Combine the margarine, milk, and sugar in a saucepan; bring to a rolling boil. Boil for 1 minute. Combine the hot mixture with the oatmeal and chocolate chip mixture; stir well. Refrigerate for approximately 15 minutes. Drop by spoonfuls onto waxed paper.

7 LAYER MAGIC BARS

- ½ cup unsalted butter, melted
- 1½ cups graham cracker crumbs
- 1⅓ cups sweetened flaked or shredded coconut
- 1 cup semisweet chocolate chips
- 1 cup butterscotch chips
- 1 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
- 1 (14 ounce) can of sweetened condensed milk

Preheat oven to 350 degrees and place the rack in the center of the oven.

Melt the butter and pour it into the bottom of a 9x9 inch baking pan. Sprinkle the graham cracker crumbs evenly over the butter. Sprinkle the coconut over the crumbs. Sprinkle the chocolate chips over the coconut. Sprinkle butterscotch chips over chocolate chips. Sprinkle the nuts over the butterscotch chips. Finally, drizzle the sweetened condensed milk over all the ingredients. Do not mix the ingredients together, just layer them.

Bake in the preheated oven for about 30 to 35 minutes or until a toothpick inserted into the middle of the squares comes out clean. Remove from oven and place on a wire rack to cool. Cut into squares. Store in the refrigerator. Makes about 16 — 2 inch squares.

CHOCOLATE DIPPED COCONUT MACAROONS

- 2 large eggs
- ½ cup granulated white sugar
- ⅓ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- 3 cups sweetened shredded coconut

Ganache:

- 4 ounces semi-sweet or bittersweet chocolate, finely chopped
- ½ cup heavy cream

Preheat oven to 350 degrees and line two baking sheets with parchment paper.

In a large stainless steel bowl whisk the eggs until well beaten. Stir in the sugar, salt, and vanilla extract. Finally, stir in the coconut, making sure that all the coconut is completely moistened.

Place small mounds (about 1 tablespoon) of the batter on the parchment-lined baking sheet, spacing several inches apart. Bake for about 15 to 20 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from oven and let cool on the baking sheet for about 10 minutes and then place on a wire rack to cool. Dip or spread the bottoms of the macaroons in the melted chocolate and place the macaroons, chocolate side down, on a parchment lined baking sheet. Refrigerate the cookies for about one hour, or until the chocolate hardens. Store the macaroons in the refrigerator.

Ganache: Place the chopped chocolate in a medium sized stainless steel bowl. Set aside. Heat the cream in a small saucepan over medium heat. Bring just to a boil. Immediately pour the boiling cream over the chocolate and allow to stand for 5 minutes. Stir with a whisk or spoon until smooth. Let cool to room temperature before using. Makes about 2 dozen.

CRANBERRY PISTACHIO BISCOTTI

- ⅔ cup granulated white sugar
- 2 large eggs
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1¾ cups all-purpose flour
- ½ cup shelled, unsalted pistachios, coarsely chopped
- ½ cup dried cranberries or cherries

Preheat oven to 350 degrees and place the oven rack in the center of the oven. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Set aside.

In the bowl of your electric mixer, beat the sugar and eggs on high speed until thick, pale, and fluffy (about 5 minutes). (When you slowly raise the beaters the batter will fall back into the bowl in slow ribbons.) At this point beat in the vanilla extract. In a separate bowl, whisk together the flour, baking powder and salt. Add to the egg mixture and beat until combined. Fold in the chopped pistachios and cranberries.

Transfer the dough to your parchment lined baking sheet and form into a log, about 12 inches long and 3½ inches wide. You may have to dampen your hands to form the log as the dough is quite sticky. Bake for 25 minutes, or until firm to the touch. Remove from oven and let cool on a wire rack for about 10 minutes.

Reduce oven temperature to 325 degrees. Transfer the log to a cutting board and cut into ¾ inch slices, on the diagonal. Place the biscotti, cut side down, on the baking sheet. Bake for about 10 minutes, turn slices over, and bake for another 10 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from oven and let cool. Store in an airtight container. Makes about 16-20 biscotti.
